EMPTY BENCHES IN MUNICIPAL COURT

From the evidence presented by an array of empty benches in the Municipal Court this morning it may be believed that the drunks have ceased worrying.

Judge Barker consequently had an easy day and is in the mind to propose that the practice of the English courts might be amended so as to provide a judge of municipal court who has no cases to hear with a pair of white socks in place of the white gloves which is the custom over there.

ELEVATOR SERVICE IN FEDERAL BUILDING IMPROVED

Ogden citizens who do business in the Federal building will be glad to learn that the elevator service in that place promises to be more speedy in the future. From appearances this morning it is judged that an intermittent service is to be inaugurated there which will run at indefinite periods of the days on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays now and again.

It is not true that the elevator stands at the second floor in order to do service as a rest room for the over-worked employees of the building.

In the future as in the past visitors to the building may employ the usual mode of procedure when requiring the elevator for a journey to the heights above. They will stand on the ground floor, ring the bell and wait.

CATTLE IN COUNTY HAVE BLACKLEG

In a number of localities in Weber county cattle have been dying lately of black leg, says Preston Thomas of the Weber County Farm Bureau.

Farmers of the county are cautioned that to prevent the spread of this disease carcasses of afflicted animals should be burned, and all young stock ought to be made immune by vaccination which is an inexpensive remedy for a very costly disease.

'BILLY' GLASMAN HAS A GOLD MEDAL

Billy Glasman of Ogden and now with the U. S. navy was in Ogden this morning en route to Norfolk or Hampton Roads, which place would prove his destination he did not then know. Billy had time to hand over to his mother a gold medal which he won at U. S. Naval training station at Goat Island, and which pronounces him to be the present light-weight champion among the gay men of the Pacific coast.

ENVOYS GATHER FOR PEACE MEET

PARIS, Nov. 14. (Havas)—A. J. Balfour, the British foreign secretary, and Baron Sonnino, the Italian foreign minister, will arrive in Paris today, the Journal says. Premier Lloyd George of Great Britain and Premier Orlando, will follow the foreign secretaries shortly. On this arrival, it is added, discussions will begin to prepare the preliminaries for peace.

CHILD LABOR BILL.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 14.—Senators opposing child labor today agreed upon a proposed amendment to the war revenue bill which will provide a prohibitive excise tax of five or ten per cent on products of child labor.

In France women are working twelve hours a day with two hour recess at noon.

YOU SHOUTED FOR YANKS; GIVE THEM REAL JOY

Monday saw you shouting until you were hoarse over the wonderful achievements of the boys 'over there,' but what the United War Work campaign committee wants to know is—how grateful to those boys were you in terms of dollars and cents?

How much do you think you owe those fighting men—$10, $25, $50?

Without casting any aspersions at the patriotism of those who waved flags and riotously celebrated the event of peace, members of the committee declare that the true American is the one who will show his gratitude by a liberal contribution toward the comfort of those men who must now spend many monotonous months awaiting the advent of the day when they will be mustered out of the service.

"Give, give and then give again to the united war campaign," is the slogan.
